This booklet is one of six parts to the kit, serving as a gateway into ILO expertise and knowledge on the regional priority area of youth employment.

The youth employment challenge in Asia and the Pacific

As in other parts of the world, our work on youth employment is driven by a Life cycle perspective and the promotion of inter-generational solidarity in the achievement of Decent Work for all: efforts to promote youth employment cannot be divorced from efforts to improve employment prospects for adults and, in many countries, combat child labour. As part of the ADWD resource kit, please download the booklet The Youth Employment Challenge in Asia and the Pacific . The booklet serves as a
