Evie Ever After (Chameleon Chronicles, #3) by Beth Ciotta

Beth Ciotta knows how to keep a reader entertained and Evie Ever After is no exception. I enjoy Ciotta's trademark humor, her skill with love scenes, and most of all, her characters. The lessons they learn and their unique ways of dealing with life stick with you long after the book is finished. Although this is the third and final book in the Chameleon Chronicles, readers of the Evie Ever After is the last installment in Beth Ciotta's trilogy about Evie Parish, an entertainer turned member of Chameleon, an organization designed to expose despicable frauds. Like the previous two books - All About Evie and Everybody Loves Evie - the third installment is a delightful read, a romantic comedy with a heart. But though still spunky and kind-hearted, the heroine is wiser now.
