"Fall" is the story of a semi-love triangle between unpopular Noel, his popular roommate Julius, and Julius' popular girlfriend Fall (short for Fallon). The title is taken not only from Fallon's abbreviated name, but also the emotional fall of the two boys.

Fall by Colin McAdam - Goodreads Share book ...

Fall by Colin McAdam has been shortlisted for the Giller Prize this year (2009) and is the fourth of five nominees I have read. While I would not choose it as my favourite of the four (my choice would be The Disappeared by Kim Echlin), it certainly deserves to be shortlisted.

Fall by Colin McAdam | The Canadian Book Review
Colin McAdam's second novel, Fall, is a masterpiece of psychological fiction. The story focuses on a pair of roommates: Julius, a typical high-school jock who is light on intellect, and Noel, who at once is both protagonist and antagonist, is the dark and brooding young man whose true character becomes clearer as the novel progresses.
