Fury: A Novel (Modern Library): Salman Rushdie ...

I only just read FURY for the first time, and my tardiness finds Salman Rushdie's book now embedded in a post 9/11 English speaking world that is at "war" against terrorism, with the author being lately knighted, provoking a renewed fatwa on his life. I can't help thinking that reading FURY at this time led me to a different perspective from those reading it upon its publication in 2001.
