What Do D-Day and Christmas Have in Common? | The Stream

As we prepare to move into the Christmas season and celebrate the birth of our Lord, we must remember that this baby, born in a manger, came to change everything. Through his life, death and resurrection, he would strike a death blow to sin, death and Satan, and establish the kingdom of God.

Why Does The Trinity Matter? | LifeCoach4God

We want to be true to the biblical witness that there is an indivisibility and unity of God, even though Father, Son, and Holy Spirit can all be rightly called God. The Persons are not three gods; rather, they dwell in communion with each other as they subsist in the divine nature without being compounded or confused.

That's why it matters to God. We have to understand the concept of human flourishing and we also have to answer this question: Does the world go in a blaze of flame or is the refining fire in the New Testament refining? Is there continuity? We have to decide where we fall. And if we decide on the lens of it goes up in a ball of flame then you might have a really good point. If we

'Don't Pray for Patience!' Really? | The Stream

It makes God look like a nasty schoolmaster, who makes us go through hard things mostly to prove we can go through hard things. Patience has a point and a purpose, and it isn't just growing a tougher hide. Quite the opposite, actually; it's about developing a heart of love and of trust.
