Mary L. (Nora) Disis, MD - Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research ...

Dr. Disis is an expert in translational research in general and breast and ovarian cancer immunology and immunotherapy, specifically. Her research interest is in the discovery of new molecular immunologic targets in breast and ovarian cancer for the development of vaccine and T cell therapy for those malignancies. Her group evaluates the use of the immune system to diagnosis of cancer and develops novel assays and approaches to quantify and characterize human immunity.
