Is That All There Is?: Thoughts on the meaning of life and ...

We all know that the world and its occupants are a little messed up and want more from life because we all live in it. What the book lacked was the next step - going forward from the current morass. There is no offering of what or how things might be better, or at least, very little. Now I don't expect one person to have all the answers, but I do think that in this type of book it was a

Is That All There Is?: Thoughts on the meaning of life and ...

In this insightful book, Julia Neuberger considers what it is that makes life worthwhile. Drawing upon her considerable experience as a religious leader and social reformer, passionately concerned with the issues that affect society's wellbeing, she offers practical ways to give our own lives a renewed sense of significance and direction.
