Mr Clarinet is hands down one of the best books I've read in years. I am typically not into mysteries or thrillers, but this book is absolutely captivating. Nick Stone is an excellent writer. I often find that with many writers they include way too much "filler" information. The kind of extra stuff you end up skimming over because it doesn't hold your interest or is irrelevant. Not with this Mr. Clarinet by Nick Stone | Elizabeth A. White Editing ...

Mr. Clarinet, the debut thriller from author Nick Stone, introduces Max Mingus, an ex-police officer/P.I. recently released from prison after serving 7 years for manslaughter. Unable to return to work as a P.I. in Miami, Max is persuaded to take a missing persons case in Haiti involving the disappearance of the son of one of the country's wealthiest families.
