As a memento, I was given a copy of foul proof of Practical Guide to the Neck Dissection by Marco Lucioni. I was thrilled to encounter in this book the anatomy of the neck depicted in a way that only a surgeon can, when his or her knowledge and expertise are combined with the talents of a good artist and a good photographer. As I reflect on my reactions when I read the book, I predict that a

Practical Guide To Neck Dissection PDF - Arslan Library

The idea of an illustrated manual on neck dissection, which dates back roughly 2 years, was based on this philosophy. It seeks to guide the reader (presumably a neck surgeon wishing to improve his or her own technical skill) through the various cervical structures in all their complexity. Accordingly, the itinerary is divided into sections, from the most superficial to the deepest planes in
