Why "Sock It To 'Em Baby" was written and a Mission Statement.

Sock it to em Baby has been written for two main reasons.

The first is that, although there have been a number of books written from the Australian Army's perspective in Vietnam, there has been few written about the RAAF and not one about the Australian FACs giving a detailed description of their operations. Garry Cooper is a natural and brilliant pilot with a determination for perfection. He expects only perfection from himself and others. Conflict arose many times through his career when he did not experience perfection from the bureaucracy to which he was subjected. On posting to the US Army 9th Infantry Division in Vietnam in 1968, he approached
