The Big Music, twice as long as The Keepsake, is a very challenging, intricately constructed modernist tour de force set in the highlands of Scotland (where New Zealand born Gunn now lives). There are excellent very insightful reviews of The Big Music in online editions of majors newspapers which I suggest interested buyers read.

(link) My novel set in the Highlands of Scotland, The Big Music won the 2013 New Zealand Book of the Year Award to my mind a complete acknowledgement of both my New Zealand and Scottish heritage in that award's understanding of Maori whanau as embodied by seven generations of a Highland family. For that reason this is an award that means a great deal to me.
