Bibloklept

The Vintage Book of American Women Writers aims to be that canon, or at least to be a volume of that canon, collecting writing by American women from the past 360 years. And while Showalter admits that it cannot claim to be comprehensive, the trade paperback is impressively hefty at over 800 pages, showcasing the work of 79 authors.

THE VINTAGE BOOK OF AMERICAN WOMEN WRITERS by Elaine ...

Overstuffed but still thin anthology highlighting women's contributions to American and world literature. In a frustratingly brief introduction, Princeton emerita professor Showalter signals her intent to make available works by important American women writers from 1650 to the present.
