Three Annemarie Monahan Three was totally unexpected and awesome. Like watching an acrobat perform feats of expertise you never thought were possible or listening to an a cappella singer hit every note, part of the thrill is that the artist comes so close to danger while soaring above it. Three by Annemarie Monahan

"Three" by Annemarie Monahan is a fascinating read. I recommend it to anyone who appreciates beautiful writing. Derrick Jensen, author of "Endgame" and "A Language Older Than Words" says it is "The novel I've been waiting for." I agree.

"Three is the novel I've been waiting for. It's a story as steady and true as a heartbeat, building slowly to a wild storm where utopias turn dystopian and then back again. It's both a cautionary tale of courage and cowardice and a battle call where the personal and the political shatter and mend each other. And
